SCHOOLREADERS: IMPROVING LITERACY, INCREASING LIFECHANGES

It is believed that all children should read well at the age of eleven when they leave primary school in the UK. Armed with good literacy skills, they will be able to make the most of their secondary education, and can go on to have fulfilling adult lives, making positive contributions to their families and to society as a whole. However, according to some statistics on the UK reading, a quarter of children leave primary school unable to read at the required level. One of the reasons seems that some children lack opportunities to read one-to-one with an adult. Therefore Schoolreaders, a non-profit organisation, finds volunteers and matches them to local primary schools where they regularly give free one-to-one reading sessions. This service is free to schools. No particular educational qualifications are required to become a schoolreader. They are drawn from all walks of life, and range in age from 18 to 92. If you have some time to spare, a good command of written and spoken English, and if you enjoy spending time with children, you can join. The volunteers get enormous pleasure and fulfilment in seeing the difference that their time makes in helping children with their reading and thereby increasing a child's life opportunities. Hundreds of schools find the help of their schoolreaders priceless. The children enjoy reading and chatting with the volunteers who are friendly, encouraging and positive in their dealings with them.

Szanowny Panie Dyrektorze!

Zwracam się do Pana, aby spytać o Pana opinię na temat mojego pomysłu na nową działalność w ramach szkolnego wolontariatu.

Przeczytałam ostatnio bardzo ciekawy artykuł na temat umiejętności czytania w UK. Okazuje się, że 1. _____ uczniów kończących szkołę podstawową w UK nie potrafi czytać na wymaganym poziomie. Przypuszczam, że w naszej szkole mnóstwo młodszych uczniów też ma problemy z opanowaniem czytania w języku ojczystym. Brytyjczycy uważają, że dzieje się tak między innymi dlatego, że dzieci nie mają wystarczająco dużo okazji, żeby czytać indywidualnie z 2. _____. W UK próbuje temu zaradzić organizacja zwana Schoolreaders, której wolontariusze zapewniają dzieciom w szkołach systematyczne spotkania jeden na jeden, żeby ćwiczyć czytanie. Szkoły nie muszą za to 3. _____. Żeby zostać tam wolontariuszem, trzeba tylko dobrze posługiwać się 4. _____ w mowie i piśmie, mieć ukończone 18 lat i lubić przebywanie z dziećmi. Podobno szczególnie satysfakcjonująca jest obserwacja, jak poświęcony czas pomaga dzieciom w nauce czytania, tym samym poprawiając ich 5. _____. Szkoły biorące udział w projekcie uważają, że pomoc wolontariuszy jest 6. _____. Pomyślałam, że moglibyśmy zapoczątkować coś takiego w naszej szkole, oczywiście z udziałem naprawdę dobrych w czytaniu najstarszych uczniów zamiast dorosłych.

Chętnie bym się zajęła organizacją takiego przedsięwzięcia, o ile wyrazi Pan zgodę.

Z poważaniem

Ewa Kowalska, kl. 8a

WHY GETTING TO KNOW OLD PEOPLE IS COOL

They drive slowly. They don't use social media. They don't listen to rap or ride hoverboards. They are so different from you that they seem like they are from another planet.

1. _____

Old people are time travellers.

It's true. When an eighty-year-old person was a child, there were no smartphones, no Internet, no satellites, no remotes or other small tools you use every day. Eighty years ago, lots of people still didn't have ball-point pens or telephones. Talking to an old person you can talk to someone who lived there and therefore you can see into the past. How did they meet with friends without mobile phones? What was life like without TV? How did they listen to music? An old person can take you back to a different time and a different world. 2. _____
You are travelling with them.

Old people have learned to live with the hard parts of life.

They may not know how to fix computers infected with a virus. 3. _____ Old people have had their hearts broken and survived. They've lost loved ones and dear friends. Most of them have moved from their home to somewhere else. They've been hurt, bullied, insulted and had to struggle in life. No matter what you are feeling, an old person can help.

Old people know stuff you don't.

Remember, every life is different, meaning that every old person has different information in their head. 4. _____ Do you need to put a wheel on a toy? Ask an older person. If you don't know how to sew on a button, an old person can probably help. How to make pickles? Where is the oil in a car? When you have a question, ask an old person. You could learn a lot.

Old people can help you make big decisions.

Old people have made countless choices during their lives. Some of those choices were positive. Some were not. 5. _____ What do they regret? They can help you make better decisions so that when you are an old person, you'll be happier. That is your future. Yes, if you take care of yourself, you will someday be an old person. 6. _____ By talking and getting to know older people, you see into the future: your future. Why not take a look?
